Cultivating Community through Socratic Seminars

A Midterm Webinar Hosted by Thinking Nation

October 17 | 5:00 - 6:00 PM CST

Part of building a healthy intellectual community in our classrooms is providing the space for students to wrestle, with complex ideas, out loud and with others.

During this webinar we will discuss:

- Active student participation by engaging in thoughtful discussion using probing questions and evidence-based arguments.
- Effective communication strategies by articulating thoughts clearly and practicing active listening
- Cultivating historical empathy by seeking to understand the past on its own terms and being receptive to multiple perspectives.
